Adrienne,

I agree with Hank that we should be using the current titles, e.g., Deputy Commissioner of PHS, State Epidemiologist, etc. until there is an official org chart change. Personally I'm not embracing all of the "Chief" titles – am hoping there will be some better suggestions from the BOH along those lines.

My review and comments to your OSDH mandates list is attached. From one of my OSE orientation slide sets I extracted the statutory references for each of my 5 service areas that I had captured. We may be lacking some references for the Emergency Preparedness & Response Service. As you will see, there is a statutory reference to responder safety that is linked to our Strategic National Stockpile. I also think we have some federal mandates in the Pandemic and All Hazards Preparedness Act. I will check with Scott Sproat on that.

Please note that the mandate for communicable disease surveillance and control is a joint responsibility of the Acute Disease Service and the HIV/STD service.

Thanks,
Kristy

Here is the most recent version that I hope captures everyone's feedback – still a work in progress. Appreciate all the assistance. Please do not hesitate to let me know if something is off or needs more information. Thanks!
